Milledgeville, Ga.

Dear baby:

I have heard it said that the Hale's were originally German people that some of them went to England from Germany. My uncle J.C. Hale said that the first ones that came to the U.S. were 3 brothers. They had biblical names all of them starting off with the letter O. Obadiah was the name of one of them, I do not know the others. They came from England to America. The Hale's came from Virginia. There was just enough kinship between Orrin C. Hale who was raised near Monroe, Ga. and my father to be called for off kinship. He is dead now. When we lived at Monroe he claimed that he wrote to Washington and that they traced down his family history. He found out that he was a direct descendant of Nathan Hale the great revolutionary war patriot. He was hanged as a spy for our cause against the British for the Americans. He dressed up in a British uniform he stated by the side of the scaffold on which he was hanged, that he thought that he only had one poor little life to give in the defense of his country. If Orrin C. Hale was a direct descendant of Nathan Hale of course we were too.
Your father is Dr. S. Buchanan.
Your mother is Miss Hale Buchanan.
Your uncle is F. E. Hale.
Your 1st uncle born died about 1886.
Callie May Hale died 3/28/43 aged 46 at death.
Your 1st aunt, Adeline Elizabeth Hale, born in 1887, died 7/17/1898. She was buried in the Aycock cemetery.
5 1/2 miles east to Monroe Ga. on the old or NO 1 Marche.
To Madison road. I cannot give you any information on the Buchanan line. All the above named persons were all buried in the same cemetery.
Your grandfather was name of Williamson Matthew Hale died March 25, 1916 aged 80. The reason was.

Berta, your great grand father John

Mary T. Hale married a student 1 before the Civil War. He always lived in Mountain district near Mount Vernon Christian church all of his life, of course never did see him more than 8 or 10 times in all my whole life. He died in 1910 or 1911, the wife who was my grand mother died before my recollection started. He was a farmer. When your great grand father Mr. M. Hale your grand father was a merchant a farmer, general business man. He was a great lover of horses and fine cows and other fine stock. He always owned a fine horse and to swell buggy. He was extremely kind hearted.

The love for his wife and children was unlimited.
This is as far back as I can go with the Hale side. Mr. J.E. Hale my uncle said that the George Hale came from Virginia. Between Atlanta and Chattanooga there are many Hale living by the name of Hale and some of them are greatly prominent.
They are a kinder sensitive people and don't take too much scolding.

On account of living about 16 miles between your grand father's place, great grand father we were deficient of learning as much about the Hale as we would have liked to. He had 2 uncles Jimmie + Charlie Hale but I do not know anything about his grandparents on his side.
In 1885 he and Miss Tolula Nathachie Hawkeye were married. Five children were the result of that union. Only 2 of them remain alive, Mollie, Emma Bachman and J.R. Hole.

Hawk side,

Adeline Elizabeth Abercrombie and Gannaway Hawk were united in marriage sometime before the Civil War. Their children were born 5/7/36.

Florence Hawk, deceased and was never married. 72.

Tolula Nathachie Hawk died 1/1/32, age 70.

Budd Hawk deceased 1899 or 1900 about 30 or 32.

Budd Hawk's children

Grace about 1885, Budd Hawk married Mollie Mitchell. Five children were born to them. George, three of them are living. Grace and Geo are dead. All of them were married.

Leonard Grace died about 15 to 18 years ago.

Geo died I think about 50. Nine years. They lived in Morgan County near Fairplay.

Gannaway Hawk's only home on a farm, he was a substitute for the Civil War with Typhoid Fever. He sent a substitute back to the war in his place. Gannaway Hawk your great-grandfather died and his substitute was killed in action. He owned 4 flour barrels full of Confederate money before it was killed.
He owned several tracts of land consisting of something like 1500 acres. But he was harrassed of debt, and his niece, now a great-grandmother lost it all but 287 acres, sometime after the war. His widow married C.W. Acock, Sr.

By this 2nd marriage several children were born. They died in their early years with just one exception, C.W. Acock, Jr. He lived until 70 years of age or older. He passed away about 30 or 3½ years ago. His wife preceded him to the grave by something like 20 or 25 years.

There were no more children all of their married life.

Please send me $100 by the next mail.

I wish that you would let me get to get me a pair of these 398 eyeglasses. They cost $14.00 a pair here. The national opticals put onto a swell one for $3.98.

I wish I had my watch, but it seems like you won't send it.

Yours truly,

G.L. Hale taken by Sherman's Army, on the 16th of November 1864; the bacon, lard and mule were taken by General Gerard's raid in July 1864.

JAMES D. STELL (March 1st, 1878) 72 years; resident of Rockdale County, Georgia; farmer, resides there 25 years; no interest in the claim; I was not present and did not see any of the property taken; I saw a yoke of steers belonging to claimant in the possession of General Sherman's army on the 17th day of November 1864; I saw the direction of some troops bringing hogs from claimant's hog-pen, and put in wagon and carried them off; I suppose and believe they were claimant's hogs; I do not know if any of the property were taken in the night time; do not know whether complaint was made to any officer;
do not know whether vouchers or receipts were asked for or given; do not know whether any payment has been made for this property; the army camped here one night and passed on the next day; I saw none of the property taken; the claimant's oxen I saw in the possession of the army; were a very fine yoke, and were the best of my belief worth $100.
I think the pork hogs were worth at least $25. each.

JOHN W. HENRY (March 1st, 1878) 39 years; resident of Gwinnnett County, Georgia, and having been for 18 years, farmer; I was not present when property was taken; I saw the U. S. troops in possession of yoke of oxen which was property of claimant; they were brought to my house by troops and kept there during the night of the 16th of November 1864, and carried off by them; officers were present but I don't know their names; it was a division of the army of General Sherman;
I think they were worth $100; they were very fine and fat; I saw no other property in the possession of the army, belonging to the claimant
I saw none taken.
JOHN T. AYCOCK, 39 years; resident of Rockdale County, for upward of 20 years; I am a son of claimant; no interest in claim; I was present and actually saw one dark bay mule taken; the property was taken in the day time; my father complained to the officers for taking the mule, but they said they were compelled to have the mule; I don't think there were any vouchers or receipts given; none were asked for; not that I know of was any payment made for the property taken; it was taken by a division of troops on a raid from Covington; I saw nothing taken but the mule; the mule was in the stable near the house; it was an extra fine dark bay mule, four years old; it was worth at the time it was taken $150; it was taken on the 22nd day of July 1864, by army under command of General Gerard; the mule was first halted by an officer and turned over to one of the men and by him mounted and carried off; I know it was taken for the use of the army, because it was at once put into the service of the United States Army; I saw nothing else taken.

JOSHUA M. AYCOCK, 25 years; resident of Rockdale County; has resided there all of my life; am the son of claimant; not interested in claim; I saw there and saw most of the property actually taken; I saw the mule, bacon, lard, fodder, cows, fat hogs, wheat, corn, fodder and chickens taken; the property was taken in the day time; I did not hear any complaint made; not that I know of were there any receipts or vouchers asked for or given; no payment was made therefor that I know of; the property was taken by the troops on the march; they camped one night on the place; the mule was a dark mule, good and sound; it was in the stable near the yard; I think it was worth $150 at the time it was taken in July 1864 by U.S. forces, but don't know what command; it was taken out of the stable and led out and carried off by the troops; the lot was full of troops when it was taken, but I can not say how many; don't know whether any officer was present in the lot when the mule was taken but I know there were officers along with the command at the time; I can not give the names of any officers present but I think General Gerard was in command of the troops that carried off the mule; I saw the troops take the bacon out of the smoke house; it was good bacon; I think there were more than 60 pounds; don't know what it was worth; I saw the lard taken by the troops and carried off and saw the fat hogs taken out of the pen; I don't know how many;
they would weigh about 200 pounds each; they were killed at the pen and carried off by the troops; don't know their value; I saw thw wheat taken from the smoke house and carried out by the troops; don't know how much there was or what it was worth; it was carried off in sacks;
saw the corn taken out of the crib by the troops; don't know how much there was; there was a good smart crib of it; it was fed to the stock in the lot by the soldiers; it was worth $1. a bushel; saw the troops take the fodder out of the barn and feed it to the stock and carry it off; there were about 1000 bundles, worth 2 cents a bundle; I saw them take the chickens, some they killed, others they caught and carried off;
I think there were over 24; they were worth 25 cents; it was taken in November 1864 by General Sherman's army on the march through Georgia to the sea; I did not see the cows taken nor the oxen taken but saw them in possession of the troops after they were taken.

The rejection by the Commissioners of claims was wholly on the question of claimant's loyalty.
